

Community Animal Response Training

Colorado Veterinary Medical Foundation

Evacuated Dogs arrive at DIA
After Hurricane Katrina

Evacuated horses— Hayman Fire

Animal Sheltering Training

Friday, June 20, 2008

Where:

*8900 Independence Way
Alamosa, CO (County Admin Bldg)*

When:

*8:30 am to 5:00 pm (registration begins 8am)
No fee, but pre-registration recommended
Lunch will be provided*

Who:

- Animal control/sheltering
- Livestock professionals
- Veterinary Professionals
- Law enforcement, Fire, EMS
- Emergency management
- Public health
- Concerned citizens!

Course Modules:

1. Overview of animal and agricultural emergency issues
2. Overview of the National Incident Management System
3. Hazards, Vulnerabilities, Consequences, Risks and Resources
4. Colorado and community animal emergency plans
5. Introduction to animal and agricultural emergency response
6. Overview of animal handling
7. Bio-safety and zoonoses
8. Hazardous materials and responder safety
9. Personal and business preparedness
10. Additional training resources

In addition, the course will provide an interactive disaster scenario discussion

Registration form:

www.cosart.org/calendar.htm

For more information, contact:

Jeff Babcock: slv.hls@amigo.net, 719-480-1767 or

Kevin Dennison: KevinDennison@colovma.org 866.854.7278

Presented by the Colorado State Animal Response Team
A program of the Colorado Veterinary Medical Foundation